David of Sassoun was born to protect Armenia and Armenians from an enemy. He was very strong and became stronger by eating oil and honey from his motherland. Finally, he killed Msra Melik in the fight and gave freedom to Armenians. Armenians love the heroes of their epic so much, especially David of Sassoun, that they named one of the metro stations of Yerevan after him. In front of the station, there is a statue of David of Sassoun, the author of which is the famous Armenian sculptor Yervand Kochar.
